--Event advocates for consumer rights and affirmative legislation--

LOS ANGELES –Khorrani Pollard & Abir LLP, a national law firm representing plaintiffs, hosted the American Association for Justice (AAJ) Women Trial Lawyers Caucus Lobby Days Dinner held in Washington, D.C. on May 20, 2009. Members of AAJ gathered at the 701 Restaurant for dinner and networking following the Congressional reception on Capitol Hill. The dinner coincided with AAJ’s two-day event which provided attendees the opportunity to attend comprehensive briefings regarding bills pending on Capitol Hill, and to promote affirmative legislation to a pro-civil-justice Congress.

“We were honored to participate in such an esteemed event that introduced Washington to fresh faces in the fight for consumer rights,” said Shawn Khorrani, founding partner of Khorrani Pollard & Abir LLP. “AAJ is a recognized venue for promoting justice. KP&A understands the importance of pulling together to lobby for a worthwhile cause.”
